

THE CRAIC HOUSE

IRISH PUB

SLÁINTE!

At The Craic House, it's not just about the food and drinks. It's about the experience.

You might be wondering, "What exactly is 'craic'?"

Well, it's an Irish term that perfectly captures the spirit of fun, laughter, and good times spent in great company.

Pronounced "crack", it's the essence of a lively, joyous atmosphere, where the music's loud, the banter's flowing, and everyone's welcome.

Whether you're here for a pint of Guinness, some hearty pub fare, or simply to soak up the atmosphere, we want you to feel the craic in every moment.

SO GRAB A SEAT, ENJOY THE VIBE, AND LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL.

WELCOME TO THE CRAIC HOUSE – WHERE THE CRAIC NEVER ENDS!

“I wanted real adventure to happen to myself.
But real adventures, i reflected, do not happen to people who remain at home: they must be sought abroad.”

DRINKS

OUR GUINNESS DRAUGHT IS NOT BREWED LOCALLY,
BUT LOVINGLY CRAFTED AT THE ST. JAMES'S GATE
BREWERY ON THE BANKS OF THE LIFFEY IN DUBLIN, AND CAREFULLY TRANSPORTED TO SINGAPORE.
GUINNESS ... THE REAL THING!

SLÁINTE!

The water used to brew Guinness in Dublin comes from the Wicklow Mountains, which has a unique mineral composition that affects the taste.

Combined with the Irish tradition of great pub hospitality, the overall experience of drinking traditional Guinness from Ireland feels unmatched.

Guinness was founded in 1759 by Arthur Guinness at St. James's Gate Brewery in Dublin. This deep-rooted history is a big part of what makes it so special.

Over the centuries, the brewery has become a symbol of Irish resilience and ingenuity. The brand represents more than just a beer – it's a national treasure.

The Guinness you drink today still comes from that same original brewery, maintaining the quality and methods that have been perfected over generations.

One of the remarkable things about Guinness is its consistency. Whether drinking it in a small pub in rural Ireland or in Singapore, the beer remains true to its roots.

The quality of the brew is maintained meticulously, and it's always been a symbol of excellence.
